Leolux Pantà Rhei Excellent Design: Hugo de Ruiter

Pantà Rhei: literally means “everything flows”. That also certainly applies to this stylish seating concept from Leolux. And although it bears an ancient Greek name, the Leolux Pantà Rhei Excellent is an extremely modern and comfortable sofa. Perfectly suited to modern homes. It has adjustable backs and a footrest that, in the wink of an eye, can be transformed into a lying island like no other. And, the backs can be folded back up and the footrest returned to below the seat when visitors arrive unannounced enabling you to receive them into a tidy room.

Modern furniture combining a contemporary look with current high quality technical possibilities. Pantà Rhei Excellent offers these two aspects together as a matter of course.

Design: Renato Zamberlan, 2014

Freely inspired by the work of the Venezuelan artist, Carlos Cruz-Diez and his Op Art style. You perceive this item not as a spectator but as a player who is actively involved with the object itself. It changes in colour depending on your viewpoint, giving the effect of a curtain which opens and closes.
